So 3 d's in Biddeford will definatly mess up an email..haha

So the price to cover existing signs with just vinyl will be $250 installed per sign. The shape or shadow of existing paint may be slightly seen in new vinyl only because it is raised a little(if that makes sense)
The price to cover existing sign with ¼" alupanel with vinyl on it, will hide the other graphics, the new sign would be screwed to existing sign. That price is $500 installed.
Thanks and let me know what else we can do to help, we would love to help with this project or many more you may need!
